

Carlos M. Brown
Vice President and General Counsel

Carlos M. Brown is vice president and general counsel of Dominion Energy Midstream GP, LLC, the general partner of Dominion Energy Midstream Partners, LP. He is also vice president and general counsel of Dominion Energy, Inc.

He oversees daily operations of Dominion's Law department.

Brown joined Dominion in 2007 as senior counsel. He was named director–Alternative Energy Solutions Business Development & Commercialization in 2013 and director–Power Generation Station II, Dominion Generation, in 2015. In 2016, he was promoted to deputy general counsel litigation, labor and employment for the Law Department. He assumed his current post in January 2017.

Prior to joining Dominion, Brown was the managing partner of Brown Martin PC and president and managing member of the Obsidian Capital Group LLC. Brown previously practiced law as an associate at McGuireWoods LLP and McCandlish Holton PC.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in American government and African-American studies from the University of Virginia. He earned his law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law.

In 2015, Brown was appointed by the governor of Virginia as the Richmond District Commissioner to the Commonwealth Transportation Board. He is a member of the boards of directors of the Richmond Metropolitan Transportation Authority, where he served as the inaugural chair; FeedMore Inc., where he serves as vice chair; and the Dominion Energy Credit Union and the Brookfield Foundation Board of Trustees. Until 2018, Brown also served as the chair of the Dominion Energy African American Resource Group.

